

Fragment of an ancient Greek papyrus manuscript, likely containing the text of Joshua ii 1-8. The text is written in uppercase letters in a cursive style, arranged in several lines across the fragment. The fragment is heavily damaged and torn, with significant portions missing, particularly in the center and lower right. Visible text includes:

Joshua ii 8-13

Fragment of an ancient papyrus scroll containing Greek text in a cursive script. The text is arranged in approximately 20 horizontal lines, though many are partially obscured by significant damage and tears. The script is dense and appears to be a form of Koine Greek. The fragment is held in place by four vertical strips of light-colored tape.
