

Fragment 82: A large, rectangular piece of papyrus with a grid of faint, reddish-brown characters. The characters are arranged in approximately 10 columns and 15 rows. The fragment is heavily damaged, with several large holes and irregular tears, particularly along the top and middle edges. A small white circular label with the number '82' is positioned on the left side of the fragment.

Fragment 83: A smaller, irregularly shaped piece of papyrus with a dense, dark, and somewhat illegible script. The characters are very close together and appear to be in a different color or ink than those on fragment 82. A small white circular label with the number '83' is positioned at the top center of the fragment.

Fragment 84: A small, roughly rectangular piece of papyrus with a few faint, dark characters. The fragment is significantly damaged and appears to be a remnant of a larger piece. A small white circular label with the number '84' is positioned at the top center of the fragment.
