For all which maternal services, we the Commissioners from the most pious & best of sovereigns, doubt not your cordial duty & affection towards us, or willingness to submit yourselves again to receive the same, whenever we have power to bestow it on ye.

we have prepared your places of Divine worship, devided your virtue and piety, and scolded with to deegree age, altho supplicating for Mercy.

we have Raviato, scalps, and murderd your People, even from Tender infancy we have block'd up your ports, & stript your trade, with the hope of starving ye, & we have the Law of Nations compell'd your sons to war against their Brethren.

we have ravaged your Lands, burnt your Towns, and caus'd your captive Herots to perish by Cold, pestilence & famine.

THE COMMISSIONERS.
